Dear Evelyn and Family How sorry I am to hear of John's passing. He was one of the kindest, most sincere persons I have ever known, During our years of working together at Inkster High, we became good friends who shared so many conversations and activities. He will always be fondly remembered by staff and students as a wonderful teacher and friend. God placed him in our lives and in his infinite wisdom has taken him to a better place where suffering will end. May He surround you with His peace and bless you with strength and courage as you face this difficult time. I pray His blessings upon you and we'll keep in touch.

There are no words that can relay what my brothers passing means to me. We as siblings were very very close there were six years apart between the three of us I was 6 when mom brought John home and he threw me off my throne. John was 6 and I was 12 when there brought Bill home. In our youth the difference in ages made a difference I'm not sure when we began to think of ourselves as the dynamic duo. Bill and I say he was the good child because He never got into trouble but we knew it was because he had our mom and Dad fooled. He wasn't a saint but the Saints above are receiving a wonderful man who loved everyone and everything. And we are going to miss him so much

Dear Evelyn: John was a creative and dedicated fellow educator, a man of integrity who had the respect and admiration of his students and co-workers throughout his career. Now he has entered eternal rest with his Savior. May the God of all comfort strengthen and sustain you as you make the necessary adjustments to life without your husband. You have many friends who will be praying for you. -Yvonne Karl
