Teresa was truly one of a kind. I don't think I have ever known someone so genuine and purely sweet as she was, in my life. I feel so blessed to have known her and I am really going to miss talking with her. Heaven will shine brighter now that she is there. May God bless and be with all of you girls as you grieve.

From the time I knew Teresa in high school, she was always a loving, gentle soul. She always made it a point to say hello. After catching up with her years later and sharing a cruise to the Caribbean with her and Chelsi, I could see she hadn't changed a bit. She was still such a loving soul. Heaven gained a beautiful angel when your mom arrived. Please have some peace in knowing she is in God's loving arms. Prayers to all of you as you process your loss.

Once we saw Teresa and Stacy shopping at Meckleys, so my husband snuck up to scare them and pretend to steal Stacy's purse. Teresa was quick to stuff herself between Stacy and Josh to try to push him away, not knowing Stacy knew him. After all the laughs, Teresa told Josh "You almost got shot!" She was fierce and fearless and ready to take on the world.

What a special person she was. Every memory I have of her she is smiling. I don't think I had ever been around when she wasn't positive or smiling. She is one of those rare people that make you a better person for having known them. You girls you very blessed to have had her as your mom. Always keep your memories close to your heart. She will always be with you. She will be missed.
