Thinking of you Brian and Keithie! We have been sharing stories and memories these past few days. My Mom was telling me that you guys said she loved the nursing home and that every time you would visit, it was like entering a college dorm room! She also shared all the different styles the nurses would do her hair in 😊 I smiled and laughed but was not surprised at all. Your Mom has always been the light, in every room. This is how I will always remember her. I will carry her smile and infectious laugh in my mind and heart. I am so sad she is gone but thankful she is in a better place than us 😊 I love you guys ❤️ Cella

Carols Dad was my brother and Carol was his oldest who was born just a few months before me. We all grew up together as best buddies. Carol was our knowledgeable one about things girls wanted to know about so we always went to her for answers. She was sure loved dearly.
