Growing up with Holly, one of Nellie's beautiful granddaughters, I remember visiting Nellie over the years and just how kind she was. Holly and I knew how to find trouble or be obnoxious, but Nellie never got mad at us, or raised her voice. I remember her saying, "Oh, holly..." as we tried to sell her on an idea of ours, or likely get something we wanted. I have a fond memory of trying to ice skate outside of her house one winter too. Nellie was a kind hearted woman, and holds a special place in my heart. Holly, Mary Kay, and family, I am so so sorry for your loss. Nellie was a truly beautiful woman and will greatly missed.
