Chad Lee Stahl

DEC 14, 1974 - AUG 20, 2021

Chad Stahl was born on December 14, 1974 and was received into Heaven on August 20, 2021. He is survived by his wife, Amy Stahl; two daughters, Emily and Erin Prater; and loyal companion Deacon. Chad was the son of Barry (Deb) Stahl and Penny (Brad) Bibbins who also survive as well as many sisters and brothers; nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by Grandma Yother, Grandpa Bibbins, and his brother Blake.

Chad was a proud member of the military, serving in the U.S. Army and the National Guard where he won multiple awards, including soldier of the year. He most recently became a proud member of the American Legion Wilber-Bartlett Post 315 in Brooklyn, MI.

Chad graduated from Columbia Central High School in 1993, then, earned his undergraduate degree at State University of New York at Oswego and master's degree at Phoenix University. Chad enjoyed the outdoors, such as kayaking, hunting, fishing, and catching beautiful woman such as Amy! He enjoyed volunteering at Cross Point Church in Nashville when he lived in Tennessee. After leaving the Army, he went on to a career with Lendlease working on renovating military housing, first as a project manager then as safety director where he worked with OSHA compliance. He most recently retired from Harvest Solar in Jackson.

Visitation will be held at Arthur-Day Funeral Home in Michigan Center on Friday, August 27, 2021 from 2 to 4 pm and 6 to 8 pm. Funeral Services to honor Chad's life will be held at Cement City Baptist Church, 16788 Cement City Road, on Saturday, August 28, 2021 at 11:00 am with Pastor Drew Woods officiating. Visitation at the church will begin at 10 am Saturday. Interment with military honors at Oak Grove Cemetery in Napoleon will follow the church services.

Chad's family would like to thank the staff of Heartland Hospice as well as dear friends Jay Compton and Peggy Mead for all of their help and care these last months and for being at his side

Missing you, buddy! I know you are in such a better place, but it doesn't make it any easier for us still down here missing you. Make sure you and Blake have a cold one for us. Love you and see you on the other side. Amy and family, my deepest condolences to you, the girls, and close friends. Many prayers are being given to you from Chad's Colorado family. Much love, Molly Koerperich
