Judy Ann Ripley-Clemons

DEC 1, 1942 - JAN 31, 2022

Age 79, of Vandercook Lake, formerly of California and Napoleon, passed away peacefully on January 31, 2022 at Henry Ford Allegiance Health with her loving family all around her. She was born at Parks Victory Hospital Napa, Ca. on Tuesday, December 1, 1942 to the late J. Doran and Anna D. (Mohr) Ripley but was raised in Michigan. She was a graduate of Napoleon High School. She married Perry Clemons in 1960. Judy became a gifted artist in her later years. Her last job was at the Jackson, MI Cracker Barrel where she had many friends. She was an amazing cook and loved to have family over for dinner. She enjoyed Facebook and the friends she had there and attended the Vandercook Baptist Church. Judy is survived by three children, Teresa Clemons-Hurley, Chris Clemons and Tim Clemons, nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Cremation has taken place and services will be held at Vandercook Baptist Church on Saturday, April 23, 2022 at 1:00pm with Pastor Kyle Vegter officiating. She will be missed by family and friends in California and Michigan. She was the spice in our family. She was a fire cracker!
