Linda was a loving and compassionate person. Always thinking of others. She was so talented and creative, from teaching line dancing to crocheting beautiful baby blankets, to mentoring at little sisters She also was the best friend I ever could have asked for. I envision her up there dancing the two step with Doug and hugging her mom. Prayers for Trevor, Tracey, Brian , Abbie and Zachary.

Linda was the most loving, kind, caring person. She knew Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and was so devoted to him. She also loved her family and friends. Many times, even after she knew how sick she was, she worried about people and their problems. Linda and Doug will be truly missed by many. I pray for her family.
