Sandy, I have many memories of your mom cooking delicious dinners, running us around to look for prom dresses, or enjoying a relaxing sit in the back yard at your house in Napoleon. Such a fine gal, so good to us!

How could 80 years go by so quickly. We shared memories from kindergarten on. I remember all the fishing trips with your father, which included the one where i thought we might be swallowed up by the freighter on the Detroit River. Your father had everything under control however. I remember all the birthday parties; they must have started when we were 5. Fond memories of being the maid of honor in your wedding. The memories go on and on for 75 years. I know that you are at peace now and there will be an angel in heaven just for you. Heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family.
