Justin Michael Koloski, 36, of Lansing, MI, unexpectedly passed away on Thursday, September 11, 2025, at Sparrow Hospital. His funeral service will follow at 6:00 p.m., at the funeral home. Pastor Rod Walker will officiate.

He was born on December 28, 1988, in Farmington Hills, MI, to Donald Koloski and Teri Harris. Justin was a Team Manager at Tommy's Express Car wash for the last 3 years, which he loved working at. He loved to travel, visit museums, spend time at the Lake with his family and listen to all types of music. Justin lived with his dog, Baxter, who meant the world to him; they would do everything together. He will be remembered as a loving son, brother and uncle, who lived a generous and fun life. Justin will truly be missed by his family and friends.

Justin was always my warm, beautiful, guaranteed smile on my trips to Tommy's. He loved my dog and always showed it! He always told me Jefferson made his day better but little did he know how much better he made my day. Such a beautiful soul lost too soon. I will miss him dearly.

Thank you for all your help with the success of the Midland MI location, Justin! You answered my calls and texts no matter the time of day or night and the fact you cared for others and their success really showed in your actions! To say there is a big hole to fill in your place is a massive understatement
