I have so many fun times that I shared with Gayle and with Paul, they were like another set of grandparents to me. I lived across the street growing up from them and with my grandparents living a distance away Gayle was there to talk to whenever I needed someone. They came to so many of my different school things and music things. I remember that when I would practice my flute outside when the weather was nice Gayle would sit out on her swing and listen to me like it was her own personal concert. I will miss you Gayle, you are at least now back with Paul and no longer in any pain now with the lord. I love you and will miss you.
