Mary Emily Marshall

JAN 29, 1948 - JAN 5, 2026

Mary Emily Marshall, better known to her family, friends, and many loyal customers as Sue, passed away peacefully at her home in Manchester, on Monday afternoon, January 5, 2026. She was 77. Sue had suffered from a long-term illness, made significantly worse by her recent advance stage cancer. Sue's husband of fifty-five years, Joe Marshall, was at her side when she passed. Sue was also being attended to by her hospice nurse and daily caregiver. Our family would like to sincerely thank and express our deep appreciation to our Elara Care and Visiting Angels hospice team for their kind, patient, and supportive professionalism that allowed Sue to comfortably live her final days at home and us to have as much quality time as possible with her. We firmly believe that she is now in a much better place.

Sue's family and friends will gather for her visitation on Wednesday, January 14, 2026, from 3:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m., at the Eineder Funeral Homes – Manchester Chapel, and from 2:00 – 3:00 p.m., on Thursday, January 15, 2026, at the funeral home, which is located at 207 E. Duncan St. Manchester. Her funeral service will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 15, 2026, at Eineder Funeral Homes – Manchester Chapel. Sue's celebratory Memorial service will be conducted by Pastor Cheryl Kaiser of the Manchester Emanuel United Church of Christ beginning.

Sue graduated from Dondero High School in Royal Oak, MI, in 1966. She attended Eastern Michigan University, where she followed in her mother's and aunt's footsteps, and obtained her undergraduate degree, majoring in Special Education, her State of Michigan Teaching Certificate, and ultimately 3 additional Masters degrees, specific areas of Special Education. Sue met the love of her life, Joseph J. Marshall, fell in love and joined in marriage at the Central Woodward Christian Church in Detroit, MI, on August 15, 1970. The couple found and were able to purchase their dream home in Manchester in 1979, the Jon D. VanDuyn house. After moving in, Sue started doing what she had trained for her entire adult life and deeply enjoyed doing, she began tutoring

Such a long and interesting life. Mr Walz kept my lawn mowers in working condition longer than expected and was always good for a story about Manchester. Jonathan and Carrie you are in our thoughtsChuck SisungFred Hoff
