Lela Ardith Watford

JUL 24, 1936 - MAR 9, 2026

Lela Ardith Watford, 89, of Manchester, MI, passed away on Monday, March 9, 2026, at the River Gate Health Care Center in Riverview, MI. Lela's family and friends will gather from 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m., on Monday, March 16, 2026, at Eineder Funeral Homes - Manchester Chapel. Her funeral service will follow at 12:00 p.m. at the funeral home.

Lela was born on July 24, 1936, to Elias and Norma (Adams) Dennis. She graduated from Garden City High School in 1954. Lela spent her career working at the University of Michigan as a medical transcriptionist, where she retired. She loved reading and traveling. Lela has visited almost every lighthouse in Michigan. She will be remembered for her love and dedication towards her family. Lela will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Lela will be missed by her son, Richard MacDougall; her grandchildren, Nicole (Bill) and Courtney; her great grandchild, Riley; her nieces, Valerie and Cindy; daughters-in-law, Susan MacDougall and Deborah Jackson; and many other extended family members. She is preceded in death by her parents, Elias and Norma; her late husband, Charles "Pete" MacDougall; her son, Patrick; her siblings, Selma, Alice, Lee Edward (Joyce), Jimmy Allen and Sylvia; her grandchild, Kathryn; and her nephew, Victor.

Please leave a message of comfort for Lela's family or sign her guestbook at <https://www.EinederFuneralHomes.com>.

Aunt Lela was so much fun to vacation with. I'm going to miss talking to and visiting with her. Mom should have been in this photo to, but she took the picture, this was a fun time exploring Michigan.
