“ Dear Joyce and all Chuck’s family: children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and all, please accept my deepest sympathy at the passing of Chuck. And to Chuck: “May the angels welcome you to paradise; May the martyrs greet you in their way; May you see the face of the Lord this day, Alleluia! Alleluia!” With love and sympathy,
Sue Wilson

“ Dear Joyce, Laura and the Entire Harbach Family, I
I write on behalf of the entire SPYC boat club as well as myself and Bruce personally. I've known your dad (Chuck) 28 years since our children were born, and he always had such a smile on his face when in the company of others! Your parents loved to come to New Baltimore/ Fair Haven and the boat outings and always enjoyed being around the water.
I cherish the days that Laura and I would drive to the Irish Hills with our young children to go to the fair, go on rides, see the 4-H animals, play bingo, have ice cream cones with the kids and Lauras family. The family grows fast and times change, but Memories always remain in our minds!
Your dad is in heaven now with Debbie and God is looking over both of them, protecting them and placing them both at peace. The days are difficult now, but they do get better, as I lost my dad 4 years ago and the years get easier, hold onto all FOND memories, no one can take them away!!
Love,
Sheryl, Bruce and the SPYC Members

“ Chuck was a very nice person. We always would have a smile on our face when we would see each other at church or driving by.
If I needed help he was willing to come and help me. Good memories. Chuck is now with Jesus.
