“ I will never forget the candy lady. She brightened so many kids days, and made us all happy to be at church. I remember when I moved away and went to another church being so confused that they didn't have a candy lady! She was truly one of a kind. Her and Jim were such givers. They cared about people in a real and tangible way. I wish I could give her one more hug and get one more piece of candy.

“ Oh my goodness where do I begin??? I think every memory I have of her was great! One time we were at Bill and Judy's place. I think one of the boys graduated and Mary Alice also graduated nursing school (it's been a while). She had a big-o-bag of gummy worms and had some hanging out of her mouth and was chasing the little kids around. She was always being silly, making you laugh was one of her many gifts. Aunt Libby was the same way and I think she passed that quality right down the line. Even Brandi has that ability to make you laugh. You can shed lots of tears for Mary Alice but sadness will never be allow or connected to this women. Going to miss you bunches but I know your light is still shining bright in heaven. Much love went with you beautiful lady. Until we are all together again I will honor your memory with lots of laughter.
